From the Pastor's Desk

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. Today we celebrate the visit of the Magi to the infant Jesus. The Magi represent the Gentiles to whom our Lord intended to include in his gift of salvation. The Gentiles were not the original Chosen People, but our Lord always intended to include them in his plan of salvation. In God's plan Israel was to be like the Star of Bethlehem - a light to the nations to guide them to the Lord. Like Israel, the Church today is called to be the star to guide people today on their path to the Lord.

Our next Theology on Tap is scheduled for this Tuesday, January 7 at 6:00 p.m. at the Fuzzy Bubbler. QU Theology Chair Dr. Daniel Strudwick will be talking on "Kingdoms in Conflict."

In January we begin collecting subscription money for our Diocesan Newspaper, the Catholic Times. I encourage our parishioners to include $15.00 in your Catholic Times envelope for your annual CT subscription. You may return your envelope in the collection anytime in the next few weeks.

Our Accounting Office is making available printed copies of your annual 2024 Financial Contribution Statements for you to pick up in church. In the upcoming weeks we will have labeled and sealed envelopes containing your contribution information that you can use in preparing your tax return. Envelopes will be sorted alphabetically, and we encourage you to pick up your sealed envelope before or after Mass.

I will soon begin Server Training with our 4th Grade students and any other interested students in Grades 5-8. This training usually takes 4-5 weeks to complete. I hope to have a New Server Commissioning on Sunday, February 9.

Finally, next weekend (January 11-12) parish member Jim Smith will speak before all of the weekend Masses about the Secular Franciscans who have been an active presence here in Quincy for many years. Please listen and consider if the Lord may be guiding you in your heart to look further into this opportunity for holiness.

May the Peace of the Word-made-Flesh be with you all,
Fr. Tom

To report allegations of sexual abuse of a minor by clergy or other church personnel -- even if it is in the past -- individuals are encouraged to call the Diocese's Child Abuse Reporting and Investigation number at 217.321.1155. Individuals may also contact Illinois Department of Children and Family Services Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.25.ABUSE.

The Epiphany of the Lord

“...They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.” – Matthew 2:11

What gifts do you give to the Lord? Pope St. Gregory said that these three gifts represent what we should give God every day. Gold – we should reflect Christ’s wisdom in all our relationships. Frankincense – represents our daily prayer and adoration to God. Myrrh – is a symbol of our daily sacrifices that we unite with Jesus for the sake of others.

Who are the Secular Franciscans?

We are an official Order within the Roman Catholic Church, the OFS was founded by St. Francis almost 800 years ago. Our purpose is to bring the gospel to life where we live and where we work. We look for practical ways to embrace the gospel in our lives and try to help others to do so likewise. The 3rd Order of the Secular Franciscans, St. Elizabeth of Hungary Fraternity, will be meeting in the Gathering Space on Sunday, January 19, 2025 from 2:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. If you feel that God is calling you to do something more with your life, come and see us.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

December, 2024

My dear Friends in Christ,

Catholic Times, the magazine of the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois, has always been a key communication tool for our diocese. Whether it is important announcements, teaching the faith, or inspirational stories, the magazine provides tremendous value to readers. For example, that was apparent this past year with special coverage of the historic National Eucharistic Pilgrimage procession that stopped in seven cities in our diocese.

Catholic Times continues to hear from readers across the diocese that they read it from "cover to cover." In fact, two people specifically told us they "finally understand purgatory" and why we must pray for the dead after Catholic Times offered several pages in a November edition educating people about this aspect of our faith.

For another consecutive year, Catholic Times received national awards from the Catholic Media Association's national awards program. Catholic Times' new website offers a much better user experience that features podcasts, videos, articles, my column, and an easy search tool.

Catholic Times is committed to deepening readers' understanding of the Catholic faith through its Hey, Father! series, tackling complex topics in bioethics, and illuminating the meaning of sacraments, the Mass, and Church teachings. At the heart of the magazine is its feature reporting, which highlights inspiring stories of individuals, parishes, and schools working to advance the Kingdom of God within the diocese. With a strong focus on local coverage, each issue delivers stories that resonate with readers, featuring contributions from both laity and clergy who are integral to the community.

My column, "Lex Cordis Caritas," is one of the best ways I can speak about the issues we face as Catholics and update readers on important decisions I make that impact the faithful.

It is all these reasons why I believe Catholic Times should be available to every household in our diocese, either digitally or by mail. During the weekend of January 11/12, 2025, please encourage your parishioners to respond gratefully in support of this communication tool so we can ensure Catholic Times remains an inexpensive source of Catholic information, education, and inspiration.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
