22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When Peter tries to deny the Lord his Passion, he in effect is denying the possibility of happiness itself. It is only by freeing himself through suffering that man finds himself, that he finds his truth, his joy, his happiness. Therefore we eagerly offer our bodies as a living sacrifice to God. The cross forces us to look upon the fact that we are loved by God. The cross becomes a new center of gravity for the bringing together what is divided—Pope Benedict XVI

LABOR DAY

I hope you enjoy this last holiday of summer with your family and friends. I will be at a family gathering in Decatur starting Sunday afternoon. Labor day is important to remind us of the dignity of work and the importance of standing up for the rights of workers. The Catholic Church has always been a voice for fair and just wages and working conditions. We pray for those who are unemployed or underemployed.

SEPTEMBERFEST MASS AT 4:00

A reminder that the Mass on Saturday will be at 4:00 and there will not be confessions before Mass.

I am looking forward to our parish celebration next weekend. Please be generous with your time talent and treasure for this important fundraiser for our school. Thanks in advance to those who have been working so hard in preparing this parish gathering.

NO PLENARY MEETING IN SEPTEMBER

I have decided to put the plenary meetings on hold until we learn more from the results of the Diocesan Synod. Most likely our next one will be in November. We will plan on our regular council meetings in September and October.

WE NEED YOU

We are asking all Blessed Sacrament Parishioners to become prayer partners. As a PRAYER PARTNER, you will be “matched” with a Blessed Sacrament Student. Your blessing will be to pray for them every day during the school year. Their blessing will be to pray for you each day, during the school. What a wonderful gift you will be giving and receiving. We need at least 280 Prayer Partners to match with our students. Right now we have 70. Please fill out the form below or email (principal@blessedscs.org) or call the school (228-1477) to get started. Once all the partners are assigned, each partner will be given the prayer partner’s name. Thank you in advance for saying YES.
