STEWARDSHIP RENEWAL

This week you will be receiving in the mail the 2018 Stewardship Renewal form for your family. I ask that you listen to the presentations the next 2 weekends at Mass and prayerfully consider how God is calling you to give of your time, talent and treasure to him and in service to the Church. Please consider some new areas where you may be more active in the life of our parish and school. I ask that you bring the completed form back to Church the weekend of October 28-29. I am thankful to our Stewardship Council for working hard to prepare this form.

ACSA

I have had several questions about the Annual Appeal. Now is the time to send your donation or pledge amount to the Diocese of Springfield. If you wish, you can put it in the collection basket and we will mail it in for you. We will have more blank pledge envelopes if you have misplaced yours. Thank you for considering your support to help us meet this assessment.

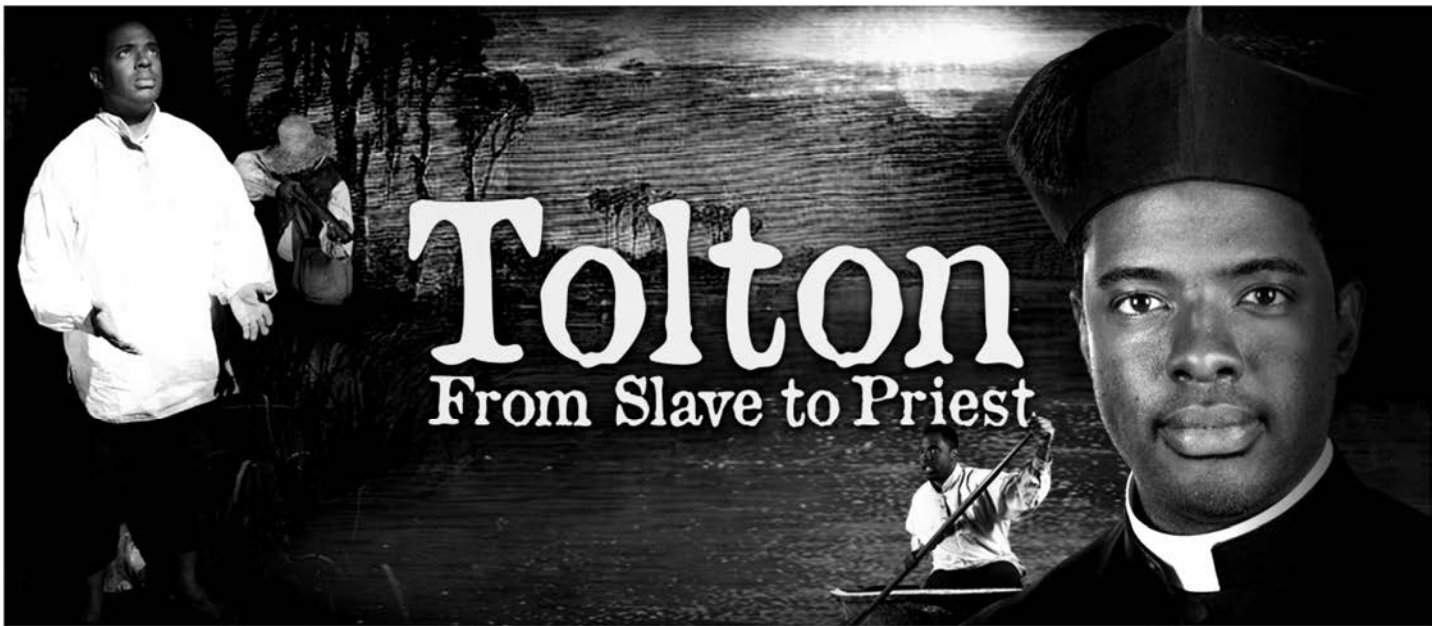

IRELAND IN 2018-SIGN UP NOW

I will be leading a trip to Ireland along with Lori Shannon of Destination Travel next October. Brochures are available by the doors of the Church and on the Destination Travel Website.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Many people still consider this sacrament as the "Last Rites" to be received only at the time of death. However the Church's understanding of this sacrament is much deeper. It is a Sacrament of healing. It should be given when someone is seriously ill. It can be given before undergoing surgery. It also may be given to those experiencing challenges because of advanced age. It can be given to those suffering from emotional or mental difficulties.

I am going to give an opportunity for those who wish to receive this anointing immediately after the Masses the weekend of October 28-29. I feel Respect Life Month is a great time to make this Sacrament more widely available. If you have any questions about this, please feel free to ask me.

No Charge for Admission

To characterize Father Augustus Tolton's life as remarkable is an understatement, to say the least. He was born a slave on a Missouri farm in 1854, and his mother risked everything to reach freedom in Illinois with her three small children, escaping across the Mississippi River by night in a boat that she rowed herself. After settling in the town of Quincy, IL, the family continued to experience hardships and persecution. Young Gus, as he was called, was even sent away from the local Catholic school because of the color of his skin.

In spite of all this, he persevered in his deep desire to become a Catholic priest, even when every seminary in the United States rejected him. "We're not ready for a colored priest," they protested. But Augustus did not give up. He was finally ordained in Rome, and upon his return to Illinois, he worked tirelessly to serve people of all races, especially the former slaves who flocked to Chicago.

Fr. Tolton saw the Catholic Church as the answer to the discrimination and rejection that he experienced in his own life. "It was the priests of the Church who taught me to pray and to forgive my persecutors," he said. "We should welcome all people into the Church, not send them away."

At the young age of 43, Fr. Tolton collapsed from heat exhaustion on the streets of Chicago and died a few hours later. Now his cause for sainthood is moving forward, as more and more people are beginning to recognize the humble perseverance, determination and compassion of this extraordinary man.

We can't wait to see all that God has in store for us as a parish and school when we unleash the beautiful power of prayer! We have notified everyone via phone, mail and/or email and will have the comprehensive list in next week's bulletin.

Men — Is Jesus calling you?

Is Jesus Christ calling you to become a priest? Do you love Jesus and His Catholic Church? Have you considered the vocation of priesthood with an open heart? Are you ready to know what God has in store for your life? Every young Catholic man should ask himself these questions. QND, in conjunction with QU, is offering The Melchizedek Project: seven 90 minute sessions providing spiritual tools to help students discern their vocation. If you are a high school or college-aged young man interested in discovering these questions, please contact Mike Young, Director of Christian Formation at QND, by calling or texting 217-617-6632 to sign up. It is free of cost and the group will meet at QU on Thursday evenings from 8:00-9:30 p.m.

Newly Baptized

Please welcome to our parish Adeline Ann Paul. Adeline was born on December 15, 2015 and baptized on October 15, 2017. Adeline is the daughter of Dustin and Aunda Paul. Please keep Adeline and her family in your prayers.

Quick Haiti Facts:

Did you know that it only takes $35 a year to send a child to our SPS? Because of this tuition, many families cannot afford to send their children.

Did you know that the education as a whole in Haiti has a level of completion of sixth grade or less?
