CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Thanks to everyone who helped in any way with our special week. Our students had a lot of fun and represented Blessed Sacrament School very well in the community. We have the best principal, faculty and staff who are so dedicated in serving our children. Thanks again for all your support that allows us to provide Catholic education to our children.

NEW LIGHTS

Thanks to Mike Grant and Ed Holthaus for installing the new lights outside on the front of the Church. They look great and make the steps much safer at night.

CAN YOU HEAR ME NOW

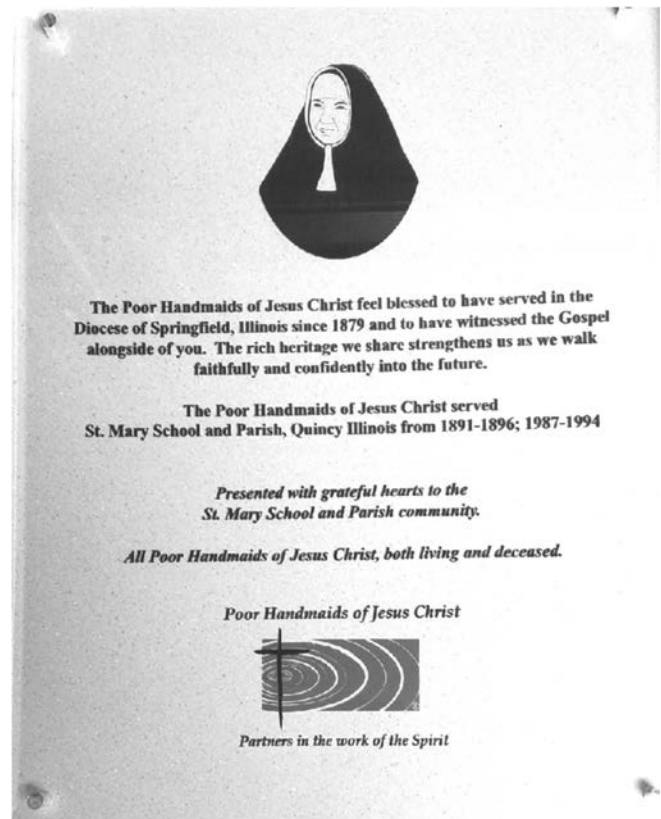

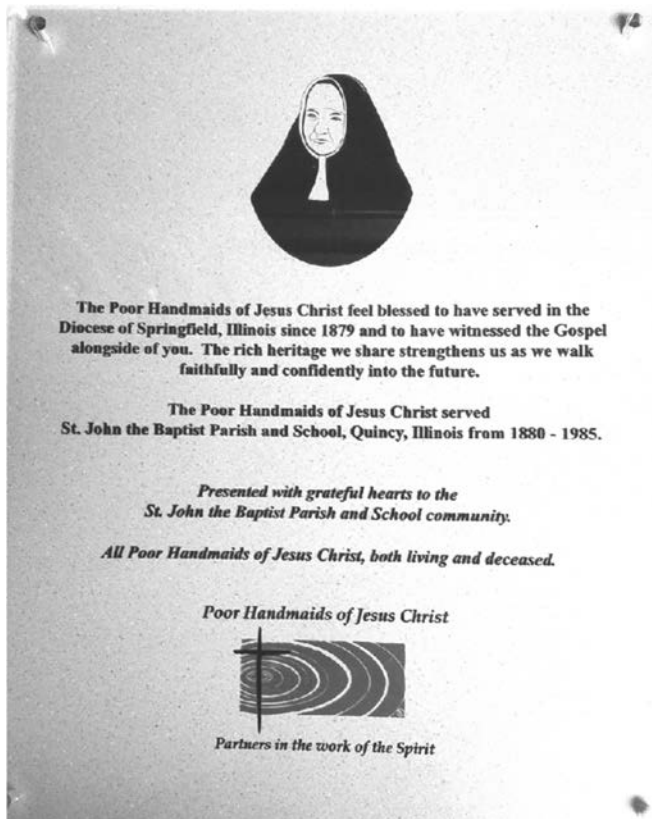

I just received a bid for improvements. The cost to have a system that will allow clear sound throughout the entire church is just about $29,000. They would be able to have it done before Easter. If you wish to contribute to this project, let me know or place your donation in the collection marked sound system. There are envelopes available in the pews so you can help to support this important project.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE

POOR HANDMAIDS OF JESUS CHRIST

FOR 150 YEARS OF SERVICE

Below you will see 2 plaques that were given to Fr. Chris in recognition of the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ 150 years partners in the work of the Spirit 1868 to 2018. One plaque is for St. John's Church and the other for St. Mary's. Quincy has been blessed with many years of Catholic Education thanks to the dedicated priests, sisters, brothers, and laymen who ministered to our city. We thank them all for sharing their faith with us.

Readings:

Jb 7:1-4, 6-7

Ps 147:1-6

1 Cor 9:16-19, 22-23

Mk 1:29-39

In today's First Reading, Job describes the futility of life before Christ.

His lament reminds us of the curse of toil and death placed upon Adam following his original sin (see Genesis 3:17-19). Men and women are like slaves seeking shade, unable to find rest. Their lives are like the wind that comes and goes. But, as we sing in today's Psalm, He who created the stars promised to heal the brokenhearted and gather those lost in exile from Him (see Isaiah 11:12; 61:1). We see this promise fulfilled in today's Gospel.

Simon's mother-in-law is like Job's toiling, hopeless humanity. She is laid low by affliction but too weak to save herself. But as God promised to take His chosen people by the hand (see Isaiah 42:6), Jesus grasps her by the hand and helps her up. The word translated "help" is actually Greek for raising up. The same verb is used when Jesus commands a dead girl to arise (see Mark 5:41-42). It's used again to describe His own resurrection (see Mark 14:28; 16:7).

What Jesus has done for Simon's mother-in-law, He has done for all humanity – raised all of us who lay dead through our sins (see Ephesians 2:5).

Notice all the words of totality and completeness in the Gospel. The whole town gathers; all the sick are brought to Him. He drives out demons in the whole of Galilee. Everyone is looking for Christ.

We, too, have found Him. By our baptism, He healed and raised us to live in His presence (see Hosea 6:1-2). Like Simon's mother-in-law, there is only one way we can thank Him for the new life He has given us. We must rise to serve Him and His Gospel.

Our lives must be our thanksgiving, as Paul describes in today's Epistle. We must tell everyone the good news, the purpose for which Jesus has come – that others, too, may have a share in this salvation.
