Summer road trips can provide rich opportunities to encounter the Catholic heritage all around you. Summer is a time of freedom, of escape from the usual routines of work and school. If taking a trip is not realistic, learning about the heritage of the Church all over the country is a rewarding exercise. Every region of the country is rich with churches, shrines and other points of interest for Catholics.

There are seven (7) different routes to explore: Lake Michigan Route – Route 66 –Southwest Route – West Coast Route – Texas Hill Route – South East Route – North East Route – Continued from last week – Here is the next Route:

Texas Hill Route: The largest concentration of missions in North America are located along the San Antonio River, Mission Concepcion (1), Mission San Jose, Mission San Juan and Mission Espeada (2) make up San Antonio Missions National Historic Park and continue to celebrate Mass. The Alamo, formerly Mission San Antonio de Valerio exists as a museum commemorating the Battle of the Alamo and the period of Texas independence from Mexico. Visit Mi Terra Café and Panaderia following your day touring the missions.

From San Antonio, enter into the settlements of immigrants from Eastern Europe, beginning with the oldest Polish settlement in the United States, Panna Maria, and its Immaculate Conception Parish (3). From there, head to Shiner, Texas, for a tour of Sts. Cyril and Methodius (4) and the Spoetzel Brewery. Visit St. Mary's High Hill (5) in Schlenburg, Texas, another Sts. Cyril and Methodius Church (6) in Dubina, Texas, and St. John the Baptist Catholic Church (7) in LaGrange, Texas to complete your tour of the Painted Churches.

Route Highlight —

St. Mary's Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary: In the late 1800's German, Austrian and Czech immigrants came to Texas through the port on Galveston Island, naming their new hometowns for the places they left. The settlers worked to create the feeling of home in their churches too, and used colorful patterns and images to mimic the architecture they left behind. St. Mary's in High Hill is known as the Queen of the Painted Churches of Texas due to its ornate design, painting and windows. The current church was built in 1906 using windows from the 1876 church, and painted in 1912.

Month 3 Developing Baby

Spiritual Adoption Program

Your baby is quite active in the womb now – although his/her mother won't feel him/her for another couple of months. If his/her mother's womb had a window, you could watch your spiritually adopted baby squint, swallow and move his/her tongue. He/she can make a tight fist. He/she is breathing fluid which he continues until birth. He/she obtains the oxygen his/her body needs through the umbilical cord. The baby you are praying for weighs one ounce.

Please welcome to our Catholic faith, Jack Lawrence Kelley. Jack was born on August 6, 2017. His parents are John Kelley and Megan Boster Kelley. Jack was baptized on August 5, 2018. Please keep Jack and his family in your prayers.
