FATHER CHRIS'S COLUMN

The story of David and Saul in today's First Reading functions almost like a parable. Showing mercy to his deadly foe, David gives a concrete example of what Jesus expects to become a way of life for His disciples.

The new law Jesus gives in today's Gospel would have us all become "Davids"—loving our enemies, doing good to those who would harm us, extending a line of credit to those who won't ever repay us.

The Old Law required only that the Israelites love their fellow countrymen (see Leviticus 19:18). The new law Jesus brings makes us kin to every man and woman (see also Luke 10:29-36). His kingdom isn't one of tribe or nationality. It's a family. As followers of Jesus, we're to live as He lived among us—as "children of the Most High" (see Luke 6:35; 1:35).

As sons and daughters, we want to walk in the ways of our heavenly Father, to "be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." Grateful for His mercy, we're called to forgive others their trespasses because God has forgiven ours.

In the context of today's liturgy, we're all "Sauls"—by our sinfulness and pride we make ourselves enemies of God. But we've been spared a death we surely deserved to die because God has loved and shown mercy to His enemies, "the ungrateful and the wicked," as Jesus says.

Jesus showed us this love in His Passion, forgiving His enemies as they stripped Him of cloak and tunic, cursed Him and struck Him on the cheek, condemned Him to death on a cross (see Luke 22:63-65; 23:34). "He redeems your life from destruction," David reminds us in today's Psalm.

That's the promise, too, of today's Epistle: that we who believe in the "last Adam," Jesus, will rise from the dead in His image, as today we bear the image of the "first Adam," who by his sin made God an enemy and brought death into the world (see 1 Corinthians 15:21-22).

UPDATE: THE BLESSED SACRAMENT ANNUAL CHRISTMAS-HOLIDAY BAZAAR

For years Blessed Sacrament Parish has sponsored the annual Christmas-Holiday Bazaar. This event, held in late November or early December on the grounds of the Quincy Knights of Columbus, has become a cherished tradition of both the parish and the entire Quincy community.

The talent, creativity and energy contributing to this annual event is appreciated by all who attend the bazaar. The financial proceeds that this event generates are given to Blessed Sacrament School. The faculty, students and parents of our parish school have expressed appreciation for the many thousands of dollars that this annual bazaar has raised for the school.

This event provides the opportunity for parishioners of all ages to work together and share their talent and creative abilities. It is a time for enjoying the fellowship of others. In a parish the size of Blessed Sacrament – over 700 household-events like the bazaar provide opportunities to expand acquaintanceships and friendships.

Calendar 2019 is a year of transition for the annual Christmas-Holiday Bazaar. Several veteran committee members are seeking to reduce their time commitment. Other committee members will continue their full-time commitment. It is amazing the talent and skills that this group of parishioners possess. Committee members would like to welcome new members and share their talents and energy with the newcomers.

A meeting will be held in the Gathering Room, March 4, at 7:00 p.m. to share details of what the Bazaar Committee does preparing for this winter event. Please accept this invitation to attend this meeting and learn the details of the 2019 year of transition. Committee members want to insure that this special event will continue to flourish for many years.
