FATHER CHRIS'S COLUMN

Psalm 15:2-5
Colossians 1:24-28
Luke 10:38-42

Scott Hahn

God wants to dwell with each of us personally, intimately—as the mysterious guests once visited Abraham's tent, as Jesus once entered the home of Mary and Martha.

By his hospitality in this week's First Reading, Abraham shows us how we are to welcome the Lord into our lives. His selfless service of his divine guests (see Hebrews 13:1) stands in contrast to the portrait of Martha drawn in this week's Gospel.

Where Abraham is concerned only for the well-being of his guests, Martha speaks only of herself—"Do you not care that my sister has left me by myself? . . . Tell her to help me." Jesus' gentle rebuke reminds us that we risk missing the divine in the mundane, that we can fall into the trap of believing that God somehow needs to be served by human hands (see Acts 17:25).

Our Lord comes to us not to be served but to serve (see Matthew 20:28). He gave His life that we might know the one thing we need, the "better part," which is life in the fellowship of God.

Jesus is the true Son promised today by Abraham's visitors (see Matthew 1:1). In Him, God has made an everlasting covenant for all time, made us blessed descendants of Abraham (see Genesis 17:19, 21; Romans 4:16-17, 19-21).

The Church now offers us this covenant, bringing to completion the word of God, the promise of His plan of salvation, what Paul calls "the mystery hidden for ages."

As once He came to Abraham, Mary, and Martha, Christ now comes to each of us in Word and Sacrament. As we sing in this week's Psalm: He will make His dwelling with those who keep His Word and practice justice (see also John 14:23).

If we do these things we will not be anxious or disturbed, we will not have our Lord taken from us. We will wait on the Lord, who told Abraham and tells each of us: "I will surely return to you."

Grace Meyer is like any other teenager, she enjoys being outdoors with her friends. There is one difference, Grace is in a wheelchair and doing this comes with added challenges. Grace is working on her Girl Scout Gold Award and is addressing the lack of outdoor activities accessible for people with disabilities. She is putting in upgrades to the outdoor area around the lodge at Camp Sacajawea, owned by Transitions of Western Illinois. She is putting in a concrete trail, concrete pad, benches and table around the fire ring, and another sidewalk. In addition, she will be adding sun shades to some of the tables on the deck. This will make it possible for people with disabilities to enjoy the outdoors with their friends. The estimated cost of her project is $12,000. For more information or to make a donation to Grace's project, contact Anne Meyer – 217-229-2489.

Bake for Birthright K of C Bar-B-Que

Bake for Birthright and have a chance to win a Hand-made Quilt or a Dining Out Package as our "thank you."

Birthright will once again have a booth at the K of C Bar-B-Que on August 9, 10, and 11. Our bake sale has become extremely popular and a wonderful support to Birthright, so we are asking again for each Catholic Church in Adams County to participate by donating home-baked goods for the Bake Sale.

Nine churches have been divided into three teams. Each parish is asked to donate 10-15 baked items such as batches of cookies, cakes, homemade cakes, rolls, breads, etc. These can be brought to the K of C grounds during your assigned day or arrangements can be made with your parish for a pick up time. Please call Patty at 217-440-8388 with questions or pick up times.

Friday, August 9 – St. Anthony, St. Peter, St. Rose

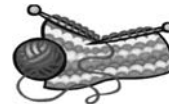

Saturday, August 10 – Blessed Sacrament, St. Francis, St. Thomas

Sunday, August 11–St. Brigid, St. Edward, St. Joseph

Each person who bakes will have their name entered into the raffle for the handmade "Quilt" and a "Dining Out Package." Make sure your name, parish and phone number are secured to your baked item.
