

Laudato Si' Daily Reflection Calendar (April 1 - April 30, 2021)

Show me the right path, O Lord.
Point out the road for me to follow.
— Psalm 25

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
As the Father has Loved me, so have I loved you. — John 15:9					1	2
					Prayer is listening to God.  John 7:1-2	Be vulnerable. Trust God.  John 7:40-53
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Let God surprise you.  John 8:1-11	Be the Light of Christ.  John 8:12-20	Open your heart to others.  John 8:21-30	Be the best image of yourself.  John 8:31-42	Who is the face of Jesus for you?  John 8: 51-59	Don't put Christ on the back porch.  John 10:31-42	Allow God to inspire you.  John 11:45-56
10	11	12	13	14	15	16
Everything we have, comes from God.  Luke 22:14-23	Take the road less traveled.  John 12:1-4	Love is the only message.  John 13:21-38	Let God heal your pain.  Matt. 26:14-25	Become the body of Christ.  John 13:1-15	Good Friday. Gaze at the Cross.  John 18:1-19	Gaze at the empty tomb.  Luke 24:1-12
17	18	19	20	21	22	23
EASTER Love overcomes death.  Luke 24:13-35	How have I changed this year?  Matt. 28: 8-15	Speak the truth. Praise God.  John 20:11-18	Welcome Jesus to be your best friend.  Luke 24:13-35	Peace be with you.  Luke 24:35-48	Reverence all of God's creatures.  John 21:1-14	Please listen. God is calling you.  Matt. 16:9-15
24	25	26	27	28	29	30/31
Open the door of your heart.  John 20:19-31	Everything I do is for Christ.  Mark 16:15-20	"I believe in the one God."  John 3:7-15	Work for justice. Find peace.  John 3:16-21	Be open to the gifts of the Spirit.  John 3:31-36	Give to others and be Blessed.  John 6:1-15	Don't be discouraged. Have faith.  John 6:16-21

Prepared by Laudatory Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis.

S

