

Laudato Si' Daily Reflections Calendar (August 1 — August 31, 2020)

Daily Prayers:

"The bread of the Eucharist is never just something to eat. It is always something to be shared."

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Together, let us pray that God will release His spiritual protection of this global pandemic and pour out upon us: Renewed faith, deeper prayer, and inner healing and hope.						1 Serve your neighbor with joy. Matt. 14:1-12
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Seek to bring equality. Matt. 14:13-21	Reach out to your neighbor. Matt. 14:22-36	Let Scripture challenge you. Matt. 15:10-14	Sit with God. Let Him talk. Matt. 15:21-28	Find a great space, then listen. Matt. 17:1-9	How strong is your faith? Matt. 16:24-28	Trust Jesus. Then act. Matt. 17:14-20
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Enjoy being in church again. Matt. 14:22-33	Be surprised. Follow your heart. John 12:24-26	Don't forget to pray. Matt. 18:1-14	Be reconciled with everyone. Matt. 18:15-20	Be comfortable. Forgive yourself. Matt. 18:21-19:1	Read the Bible. Then be quiet. Matt. 19:3-12	Mary is the mother of Jesus, and our Mother. Luke 1:39-56
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
Jesus will listen. Start talking. Matt. 15:21-28	Do something for the poor. Matt. 19:16-22	Drop everything when Jesus calls. Matt. 19:23-30	How do I need forgiveness? Matt. 20:1-16	Love is a natural human affection. Matt. 22:1-14	Make life easier for someone. Matt. 22:34-40	Reflect on your Mom, living or deceased. Matt. 23:1-12
23	24	25	26	27	28/29	30/31
Who is Jesus for you? Matt. 16:13-20	Create space for God in your life. John 1:45-51	How do you disguise yourself from others? Matt. 23:23-26	Be excited with your faith. God is. Matt. 23:27-32	Be quiet. Find your inner peace. Matt. 24:42-51	Don't just talk Jesus. Be Jesus. Matt. 25:1-13	Pray for the healing of the Covid-19 virus. Luke 4:16-30

Prepared by Laudato Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written in the encyclical by Pope Francis.

