

Laudato Si' Daily Reflection Calendar (August 1 - August 31, 2022)

Catholics come closer to Christ — by living in a parish family and gathering around the Eucharistic table.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1	2	3	4	5	6
	Share compassion with others.	We are free to trust God.	Be Jesus to a stranger.	Be a person of hope for others.	Let God gift you today.	God is awesome. Trust Him.
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
Share your possessions.	Be Jesus with skin.	God will always be with us.	Use your time and talents freely.	Forgive others as God forgives you.	Pray for your parents, living or deceased.	Share your time and talents with others.
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
Be fully alive and serve others.	Pray for all children who are mistreated.	Take off your mask and smile to everyone.	Always be true to yourself.	Prayer leads us to always change for good.	Let God surprise you today.	Be an example for others to follow.
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
Make a new friend today.	Mary, our Mother, will always guide us.	You are gifted. Give of yourself to others.	Be happy. Keep a smile on your face.	God has a purpose for you today.	God is always with us in our routines.	Make a friend, notice his or her need.
28	29	30	31
God, give me what I need.	Be grateful for your blessings.	Practice your faith. Your life will change.	Be quiet. Sit in silence. Notice what happens.

Prepared by Laudato Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis.