

Laudato Si' Daily Reflections Calendar (December 1 - December 31, 2019)

We are each an ember of the mind of God and we are each sent to illumine the other through the dark passages of life to sanctuaries of truth and peace. — Sister Joan Chittister, OSB

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Seek inner peace.  Matt. 24:37-44	Wait patiently.  Matt. 8:5-11	Let God surprise you.  Luke 10:21-24	Let God feed you.  Matt. 15:29-37	Be patient with others.  Matt. 7:21-27	You are on Holy Ground.  Matt. 9:27-31	Appreciate your health.  Matt. 9:35-10:1
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
Remove indifference.  Matt: 3:1-12	Pray for your "mom."  Luke 1: 26-28	Can you hear God calling?  Matt. 18: 12-14	Let God give your rest.  Matt. 11:28-30	Be open to Blessings.  Luke 1:39-47	God is looking for you.  Matt. 11:16-19	Trust God: He is listening.  Matt. 17: 10-13
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
Be patient today!  Matt. 11:2-11	Ask God for something.  Matt. 21:23-27	Discover your family tree.  Matt. 1:1-17	Be silent: Listen to God.  Matt. 1:18-25	Help someone in need.  Luke 1:5-25	Pray for the newborn.  Luke 1:26-28	Remember the lonely.  Luke 1:39-45
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
Come, Lord Jesus, Come.  Matt. 1:18-24	Be a happy person today.  Luke 1:51-66	Prepare to welcome Jesus.  Luke 1:67-79	Christmas Open your gifts with joy.  John 1:2-28	Pray for your Godparents.  Matt. 10:17-22	Share the good news of Jesus.  John 20:1-8	Pray for all the stillborn.  Matt. 2:13-18
29	30	31	If you are on a road with no obstacles, It probably doesn't lead anywhere.
Thank God for your family.  Matt. 2:19-23	What was special this year?  Luke 2:36-40	Share a memory from Christmas.  John 1:1-18

Prepared by Laudato Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis.

|