

Laudato Si' Daily Reflections Calendar (February 1 - February 28, 2021)

How we think God feels about us is critically important, because it greatly affects the way we feel about ourselves.
— Wilkie Au

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1	2	3	4	5	6
	Is Jesus my friend? Mark 5: 1-20	Share your talents. Luke 2:22-40	Let someone see Jesus in you. Mark 6:1-6	Reflect on your blessings. Mark 6:7-13	Be faithful to yourself. Mark 6:14-29	Take time to pray today. Mark 6:30-34
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
Jesus always has the answer. Mark 1:29-39	Am I jealous of anyone? Mark 6:53-56	Be grateful for your parents. Mark 7:1-13	Notice God in the small things. Mark 7:14-23	Let God befriend you! Mark 7:24-30	Peace is greater than power. Mark 7:31-37	What is my greatest sin? Mark 8:1-10
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
Pray for those with the virus. Mark 1:40-45	Sin is a lack of sharing love. Mark 8:11-13	Let God manage your life. Mark 8:14-21	Ash Wednesday Receive your ashes today. Matt. 6:1-6	Be successful. Follow Jesus. Luke 9:22-25	Keep your body healthy. Matt. 9:14-15	Create space for God to change you. Luke 5:27-32
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
Follow the path of justice. Mark 1:12-15	You are chosen to lead others. Matt. 16:13-19	Forgive those who annoy you. Matt. 6:7-15	Know that God is always with you. Luke 11:29-32	Remember: We are always being noticed. Matt. 7:7-12	Be a person of peace. Mark 5:20-21	Realize you are not perfect. Matt. 5:43-48
28	 Walking creates the path — it's not a rehearsal. — John Phelps
Always seek the truth. Mark 9:2-10

Prepared by Laudato Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis.

