

Laudato Si' Daily Reflection Calendar (February 1 - February 28, 2023)

"Experience proves time and again that a home is more than a house, it is a place of warmth and love."

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
"Home is not a place in which to hide from the world."			1	2	3	4
			Be patient with everyone.	Be a messenger of hope.	We need each other in life.	Take time to relax.
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
Volunteer to help others.	Be grateful for our gifts.	God has put great trust in us.	Let God be your guide today.	Have a smile for everyone today.	Don't compromise your values.	Have a meal with someone
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
Live the spirit of the law.	Be open to God loving you today.	All we need is to trust Jesus.	Be compassionate with others.	Let God give you life today.	Be happy: Surrender all to God.	Our faith must grow each day.
19	20	21	22	23	24	25
Put a smile on your face today.	Notice God loving you today.	God is compassionate and merciful.	Wear your ashes proudly today.	Lent is a time to refresh ourselves.	Share a random act of kindness.	Let your light shine, help a neighbor.
26	27	28	LENT Fast Pray Give			25
Speak the truth. Others will listen.	Meet Christ in someone else.	Be the good news for the poor.				Pray and love.

Prepared by Laudatory Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis

