

Laudato Si' Daily Reflection Calendar (January 1 - January 31, 2023)

A baby finds everything and everyone to be a new and exciting experience.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Pray for all moms.	Begin your day with prayer.	Be the face of Jesus to everyone.	Jesus lives in each of us.	Show kindness to every person.	Reflect on your family tree.	Pray for all who love you.
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
Be thankful for your blessings.	Pray for your parents and grandparents.	Let Jesus lead you today.	Compassion changes everything.	Be responsible for your actions today.	Pray for those who are seeking Jesus today.	Make time for prayer each day.
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
How has your faith changed recently?	Don't become set in your ways.	Be patient with everyone today.	Mix well. See what happens.	Participate in your Sunday Mass.	Let everyone know that you trust God.	Be a good listener to others.
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
Compliment someone today.	Pray for all Deacons today.	Spend a few minutes in prayer.	Share your time and talent with others.	Pray for those who need a home.	Create a garden of faith, love and hope.	Pray for all in the hospital today.
29	30	31	God is present in each moment. But we must slow down to appreciate the gift of this moment.
Make sure our parish is alive and well.	Recognize someone who needs to see a smile.	Change a person from sadness to joy.

Prepared by Laudato Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis.
