

Laudato Si' Daily Reflection Calendar (July 1 - July 31, 2021)

Whenever I find myself in the cellar of affliction,
I always look about for the wine.
— Samuel Rutherford

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
We are each an ember of the mind of God And we are each to illumine the other through the dark passages of life to places of truth and peace. — Joan Chittister, OSB				1	2	3
				God always presents a challenge.  Matt. 9:1-8	Don't judge. Just wash feet.  Matt. 9:9-13	Take care of your neighbor.  John 20:24-29
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
What did I learn from the pandemic?  Mark 6:1-6	Heal someone with your smile.  Matt. 9:18-26	Pray for those with a mental illness.  Matt. 9:32-38	Remember that you are never alone.  Matt. 10:1-7	Laughter releases love!  Matt. 10:8-15	Be a gift of hope for others.  Matt. 10:16-23	Having a bad day. See the big picture.  Matt. 10:24-33
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
What is your dream for today?  Mark 6:7-13	Be kind to your neighbors.  Matt. 10:34-11:1	Lean on God. Then find comfort.  Matt. 11:20-24	Remember: Everything is sacred.  Matt. 11:25-27	Welcome someone to be Jesus to you.  Matt. 11:28-30	Give your troubles to God.  Matt. 12:1-8	Welcome a smile on handshake.  Matt. 12:14-21
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
Relax: God is in charge.  Mark 6:30-34	Don't put limits on God or yourself.  Matt. 12:38-42	Don't ignore a challenge today.  Matt. 12:46-50	Your mask is gone. Renew your smiles.  Matt. 13:1-9	Rely on God as you do your cellphone.  John 20:1-18	Honor God's name, as your own name.  Matt. 13:18-23	Notice: Good and bad people live together.  Matt. 13:24-30
25	26	27	28	29	30	31
May everyone have something to eat.  John 6:1-15	Remember: You are the seed of love.  Matt. 13:31-35	Remember: Never go to bed angry.  Matt. 13:36-43	Allow someone to be Christ to you!  Matt. 13:44-46	Pray for those who are close to you.  Luke 10:38-42	Enjoy the gift of summer.  Matt. 13:54-58	What motivates you to be Christ to others?  Matt. 14:1-12

Prepared by Laudatory Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis

