

Laudato Si' Daily Reflections Calendar (June 1 - June 30, 2020)

Daily Prayers:

Beneath the vast expanse of the sky,
The panorama of clouds and stars,
I can sense the order of the world, and feel secure.
— "unknown"

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1	2	3	4	5	6
	See with the eyes of Jesus. John 19:25-34	All people are created in God's image. Mark 12:13-17	We are called to a Holy life. Mark 12:18-27	Accept yourself as you are. Mark 12:28-34	Take life one day at a time. Mark 12:35-37	Notice those in need. Mark 12:38-44
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
Seek to understand, not control. John 3:16-18	How has God gifted you? Matt. 5:1-12	Be Christ to everyone. Matt. 5:13-16	Is God present in your action? Matt. 5:17-19	What are God's plans for you today? Matt. 5:20-26	Let God surprise you today. Matt. 5:27-32	Move forward in your prayer life. Matt. 5:33-37
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
Reflect on your first communion. John 6:51-58	Ask God to set you free. Matt. 6:1-6	Be who you really are. Matt. 5:43-48	Look inside your heart. Matt. 6:1-6	Pray: "Thy will be done." Matt. 6:7-15	What is your burden today? Matt. 11:25-30	Have a chat with your Mother Mary. Luke 2:41-51
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
Speak to a stranger today. Matt. 10:26-33	Avoid any stereotypes today. Matt. 7:1-5	Be amazed at God's love for you. Matt. 7:6, 12-14	God has a purpose for your life: Listen. Luke 1:57-66	Allow God to bring change into your life. Matt. 7:21-29	Be healed, so you can heal others. Matt. 8:1-4	Pray for the healing of Covid-19. Matt. 8:5-17
28	29	30	The sky is the daily bread of the eyes. — Ralph W. Emerson
How has this Easter Season touched you? Matt 10: 37-42	Have you recognized Jesus in yourself? Matt 16:13-19	Be calm today, God is with you. Matt 8:23-27

