

Laudato Si' Daily Reflection Calendar (May 1 - May 31, 2023)

"Do we love God as the person we love the least?"

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1	2	3	4	5	6
	To work without love, is slavery.	Enjoy the freedom of the Gospel.	What are you passionate about?	We must be faithful to each other.	What keeps bringing you back to God?	Open the door of your heart.
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
With God, everything is possible.	Reach out to someone in need.	Bring excitement into your life today.	Listen to the view points of a stranger.	Share a smile with everyone.	Trust the wisdom of your family and friends.	How often does God wait for us to pray?
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
Let the Holy Spirit guide you today.	Do something for a stranger today.	Experience something new today.	Adjust your life to the needs of others.	Ask God for a personal favor.	Grief is personal, but we all grieve.	What do you most cherish with your family?
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
Wear a smile today. Watch others do the same.	Don't be afraid. Face your fears.	What do you value most in life.	We are to be disciples of Christ.	Jesus wants us to be a family of love.	Be humble. Let God love you.	Give yourself to God. Be humble.
28	29	30	31	" Is everyone your brother and sister?"
Celebrate the Holy Spirit in you!	Love is more powerful than violence.	We know Jesus through face-to-face moments.	Smile today. Watch others smile back.

Prepared by Laudatory Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis.