

Laudato Si' Daily Reflections Calendar (October 1 — October 31, 2020)

"None of us can know in advance what form our life will assume."

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
"Our presence affects children more than our word."				1	2	3
				Power of prayer is awesome. Luke 10:1-12	Be patient in all things. Matt. 18:1-5	God can be trusted. Luke 10:17-24
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Feed the God of peace. Matt. 21:33-34	Live out each day. Luke 10:25-37	Be quiet and listen. Luke 10:38-42	May God lead you today. Luke 11:1-4	Suffering invites us to pray. Luke 11:5-13	Have a passion for justice. Luke 11:15-26	Select a scripture passage. Luke 11:27-28
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
Bring someone to church. Matt. 22:1-14	Freedom is a way of life. Luke 11:29-32	Overcome a bad habit. Luke 11:37-41	Show kindness to someone. Luke 11:42-46	Where is God leading you? Luke 11:47-54	Bring hope to someone. Luke 12:1-7	Prayer is our real freedom. Luke 12:8-12
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
Reflect on those who love you. Matt. 22:15-21	What bring you happiness? Luke 12:13-21	Pray for all doctors and nurses. Luke 12:35-38	Live each day as your last. Luke 12:39-48	Be generous with your life. Luke 12:49-53	Where is God leading you today? Luke 12:54-59	Who needs you today? Luke 13:1-9
25	26	27	28	29	30	31
Put your family and friends first. Matt. 22:34-40	Pay attention to your surroundings. Luke 13:10-17	Pray for all people to vote. Luke 13:18-21	Sit quietly for 10 minutes. Luke 6:12-16	Be pro-active with your life. Luke 13:31-35	What and who are important in your life. Luke 14:1-6	For me to live is Christ. Luke 14:7-11

Prepared by Laudato Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis.

