

Laudato Si' Daily Reflection Calendar (September 1 - September 30, 2021)

Physical disability can often be a blessing in disguise.
It opens a window to spiritual realities that nourish the soul.
— Carolyn Humphreys

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Covid 19 is providing us a unique opportunity to face our vulnerabilities, and face a new future. — Monsignor John Zenz			1	2	3	4
			Remember: God loves you. Luke 4:38-44	Send someone a card. Luke 5:1-11	What is God like? Luke 5: 33-39	We are constantly becoming ourselves. Luke 6:1-5
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
What gives me hope? Mark 7:31-37	Let go of your control buttons. Luke 6:6-11	Relax: Enjoy the moment. Luke 6:12-19	Reflect on those who gave you life. Matt. 1:1-6, 18	We are all created equal. Luke 6:27-28	How is your relationship with God? Luke 6:39-42	Today is the anniversary of 9/11. Luke 6:43-49
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
We must die to ourselves, to be alive. Mark 8:27-35	Let God empower you today. Luke 7:1-10	Hold a crucifix in your hands today. John 3:13-17	Carry your cross with a smile. Luke 2:33-35	Enjoy the spontaneity of a child. Luke 7:36-50	What simple things make you happy? Luke 8:1-3	Make a positive change in your life. Luke 8:4-15
19	20	21	22	23	24	25
Enjoy your day by serving others. Mark 9:30-37	Accept the invitation to walk with Jesus. Luke 8:16-18	Let Jesus into your life with a smile. Matt. 9:9-13	Smile to a stranger. Luke 9:1-6	Live life to the fullest. Luke 9:7-9	Pray for someone in need. Luke 9:18-22	Allow someone to challenge your faith. Luke 9:43-45
26	27	28	29	30
Say hello to a stranger at Mass. Mark 9:38-48	Notice a child having fun! Luke 9:46-50	Compliment someone today. Luke 9:51-56	Remember we all have a guardian angel. John 1:47-51	Our relationships make us who we are. Luke 10:1-12

Prepared by Laudatory Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis

