DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

On the Second Sunday of Easter in the year 2000, Pope St. John Paul II declared that this Sunday would be known as Divine Mercy Sunday. Through the writings of St. Faustina Kowalska we learn that Jesus wishes to pour out his mercy in a special way on this day. I encourage you to learn more about the Divine Mercy devotion and to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Also come to appreciate the Image of Divine Mercy that hangs near the West Entrance of our Church and is displayed on the Altar this weekend. I will have a Holy Hour this Sunday afternoon at 3:00 to celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday with special prayers for the outpouring of God's grace on us.

IMAGE OF MERCY

I ordered 200 8X10 images of Divine Mercy but they haven't arrived yet. I will let you know when you can pick them up.

SPECIAL THANKS

I am so grateful for your outpouring of support for me this Easter. Thanks for the Easter dinner, the cookies and candy, (a couple of beers!) the gifts and cards, and especially all of the words of gratitude! I was especially touched by the chalk drawing on the sidewalk in front of the rectory. It all means the world to me!

Thanks to everyone who made our Liturgies so beautiful during Holy Week. The altar looks beautiful thanks to our decorating committee. Thanks to Fr. Mike and Deacon Terry for their helping to lead our celebration. Thanks to Steve Buckman and Julia Goerlich for the beautiful music. Thanks to our lectors, servers, and others behind the scenes for their help.

Thanks for your continued financial support. We are down in contributions but not a huge amount. I am a little concerned in the drop of our Haiti contributions so using that envelope would be greatly appreciated. The envelope for the support of our seminarians is also important this month to support our future priests.
